Dear Mr & Mrs Roach

Liberals commit to restore NRZ and GRZ protections if elected in 2018

Last week at a Restore Residents' Rights rally at Parliament House, I made a public commitment to restore the Neighbourhood Residential Zone and General Residential Zone protections introduced under the former Coalition Government and recently torn up by Labor.

Planning Minister Richard Wynne recently told the Public Accounts and Estimates Committee that, under his changes, 10 or more dwellings could now be built on a single block in the previously most highly protected Neighbourhood Residential Zones, where the previous government had mandated a maximum of two dwellings.

A Coalition Government will reverse this short-sighted and damaging decision. Our neighbourhood amenity and liveability simply must be better protected from inappropriate overdevelopment.

I have enclosed a transcript of my comments at the Restore Residents Rights rally, should these be of interest to you.

Yours sincerely
